1. The Organisation

Inspire Youth and Family Services Inc. (IYS), is a not-for-profit, community based organisation committed to providing preventative and early intervention strategies which meet the immediate needs of children, young people and their families whilst supporting empowerment and the ability to make informed future decisions. Purposeful information, advocacy and referrals are available to support decision-making and engagement in such areas as accommodation and housing, education, employment and training, counselling, community and cultural connection, restorative practice, and positive social participation.

Formed in 1986, and incorporated in 1988, IYS is managed by a voluntary Board of Management who meet monthly to ensure good governance and oversee organisational operations, program delivery, compliance and finances.

2. Service provision

2.1 Clients and catchment

The Bail Support Case Manager will be based throughout the Western Brisbane Districts and Ipswich region, servicing young people aged 10-17 years who come from a range of backgrounds and are faced with a range of challenges

Including;

- Risk of homelessness or homeless
- family breakdown
- Risk of or disengagement from education and training
- Social Isolation disconnection from community
- Mental health or Alcohol and drug difficulties
- At risk of or involved in criminal justice system

2.2 Referrals

All young people and families engage with the service in a voluntary capacity and young people must consent to receiving a service and participating in programs. Referrals come from a range of sources including schools, other services, self-referrals, family, Youth Justice, Child Safety and Police.

2.3 Service activities

The service will provide a mix of intensive youth and family support, diversionary/activity-based youth support and practical youth and family supports including but not limited to:

- Provide interventions to minimise future difficulties increasing protective factors
- Provide young people with information, support and referrals

Position Description

- Assist young people to find and maintain suitable accommodation
- Referral to alcohol and other drug rehabilitation, mental health, NDIS and/or other relevant services
- Assist young people to re-engage with education, training and/or employment opportunities
- Strengthen family ties and/or cultural connection
- Coordination and delivery of group programs

2.4 Framework and principles

- Client centred – staff will be flexible in terms of meeting with young people and their families, going to where they may feel most comfortable, such as in their home or a ‘neutral’ location. Staff may need to be available to be on call and before and after regular office hours.
- Strengths based – the Service adopts a strengths-based approach when working with young people.
- Trauma informed – the Service works in trauma informed ways, recognizing the impact of trauma and complex trauma on brain development and the need to identify trauma informed behaviours.
- Restorative – the Service will support young people to identify and maintain positive connections with the community.
- Culturally safe – in particular, the Service will align with the Australian Institute of Criminology’s National Crime Prevention Framework’s best practice guidelines for preventing involvement in crime for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

3. The role

Our Case Manager’s are responsible for supporting the provision of a high standard of client led case management with vulnerable, at risk young people to facilitate the development of positive relationships, positive social and community engagement and support informed decision making to empower young people to make positive choices about their lives.

Our Case Manager’s develop and maintain positive relationships with stakeholders, including Youth Justice Service/Detention Centre staff, Richlands and Ipswich Court staff, legal representatives, Queensland Police Service, Child Safety, accommodation providers, youth agencies, and others to support young people and their families achieve their desired outcomes.

The person will work collaboratively with the all IYS staff to deliver high quality case management.

Our Case Manager’s will work with the young person to identify their needs and develop a plan to deliver targeted and goal-driven supports that focus on the individual young person’s needs and aspirations, to support achievement of the program objectives. From time to time it may be appropriate to develop a group program delivery strategy for interventions and/or prosocial engagement. The Case Manager will work with the Service Manager and IYS team to identify and implement such opportunities.

The position requires an individual who can demonstrate in-depth knowledge of the issues impacting high risk young people and their families and who is experienced in client driven, strengths based approaches to youth engagement and casework to create lasting positive change.

There is an expectation that staff will be reliable and punctual, both within the office and in responding to young people and their families, and support diversity and respect in the work place and their practice.

The Case Manager will support implementation, evaluation and program development to ensure its success.
